

Care Bundles Recording Tool-Each shift

Urinary Catheter (UC) Care Bundle

Use in conjunction with OLCHC (2012) Urinary Catheter care Guidelines & Careplan 29

Tick ✓ each element of care bundle. To be 100% compliant all boxes must be ticked.

Indwelling urinary catheters give rise to urinary tract infection. The decision to insert and remove a Urinary Catheter is a medical/surgical decision.

	Date:
	Time
Date UC Inserted: ____ / ____ / 20__	Line Day
Date UC Removed: ____ / ____ / 20__
Reason for UC removal:
1. Assess the need for UC on each shift Discuss catheter removal with team Please tick
2. Hand hygiene is performed before and after all maintenance/access procedures. Please tick
3. Appropriate ANTT Level is used. Gloves should be worn by staff members accessing the urinary system. Please tick
4. UC is continuously connected to a drainage system which is changed as per OLCHC guidelines (2012) Please tick
5. Meatal care is performed as required as per OLCHC guidelines Please tick
6. The drainage bag is situated below the level of the bladder and the tap not in contact with any other surface. Please tick
7. The drainage bag is emptied and volume recorded as ordered. Please tick
Initials
NMBI PIN

- At the beginning of each shift complete the care bundle above.
- If non compliant with bundle re-evaluation may be required following nursing care.
- Use a ✓ in the boxes provided for a yes. An X for no

Patient Name.....

HCR no.....

Ward

Urinary Catheter

Care Bundles Recording Tool-Each shift

Urinary Catheter (UC) Care Bundle

Use in conjunction with OLCHC (2012) Urinary Catheter care Guidelines & Careplan 29

Tick ✓ each element of care bundle. To be 100% compliant all boxes must be ticked.

Indwelling urinary catheters give rise to urinary tract infection. The decision to insert and remove a Urinary Catheter is a medical/surgical decision.

	Date:
	Time
Date UC Inserted: ____ / ____ / 20__	Line Day
Date UC Removed: ____ / ____ / 20__
Reason for UC removal:
1. Assess the need for UC on each shift Discuss catheter removal with team Please tick
2. Hand hygiene is performed before and after all maintenance/access procedures. Please tick
3. Appropriate ANTT Level is used. Gloves should be worn by staff members accessing the urinary system. Please tick
4. UC is continuously connected to a drainage system which is changed as per OLCHC guidelines (2012) Please tick
5. Meatal care is performed as required as per OLCHC guidelines Please tick
6. The drainage bag is situated below the level of the bladder and the tap not in contact with any other surface. Please tick
7. The drainage bag is emptied and volume recorded as ordered. Please tick
	Initials
	NMBI PIN

- At the beginning of each shift complete the care bundle above.
- If non compliant with bundle re-evaluation may be required following nursing care.
- Use a ✓ in the boxes provided for a yes. An X for no

Patient Name.....

HCR no.....

Ward